Elwood Volunteer Fire Company

Elwood, New Jersey

Your Support Is Our Progress

Dear Friends:

The Elwood Volunteer Fire Company with its many friends has prepared this book as a token of appreciation to your splendid generosity.

We hope that in a year or two we will have one of the finest pieces of fire fighting equipment in the county. This has been a long cherished dream of ours. In the past few years our company has worked hard to make our fire house and hall a building to be proud of. We are sure that with your continued support we will be able to accomplish all of our goals. In behalf of all our Firemen and Ladies Auxiliary we wish to thank every one of you.

Please patronize our local and nearby merchants. In time of need they are ever so willing to lend a helping hand.

Signed,

CARMAN A. SICILIANO, President
CHARLES CIRILLO, Chief

IN CASE OF FIRE —

Elwood Volunteer Fire Company1908 - 1958History

Fifty years ago, after an especially dry March with high winds and a plaguing epidemic of grass and brush fires that endangered homes in and around Elwood a group of civic minded citizens decided to organize a volunteer fire company. These men, believing in the old adage, "A man's home is his castle," no matter how humble the dwelling, had for years helped extinguish these blazes and believed that only in an organized group could top service be given to a neighbor threatened to lose his home by fire.

In April, 1908 action was taken and a group of twenty-five home owners gathered for their first meeting at the old Reading Railroad Station at Weymouth Road and what is now Reading Avenue, overlooking a busy two track railroad artery connecting Camden and Atlantic City which now is the site of the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ritchie. Mr. Ritchie is a retired Philadelphia police officer.

Attending the meeting when first plans were drawn up were:
 John T. Irving—Mullica Township Freeholder and cranberry grower;
 George N. Cassell—Elwood merchant;
 John W. Johnson—Railroad Foreman;
 Theodore W. Holden—Owner of Elwood's General Store;
 Gottlieb Mick—Farmer;
 J. Hammond Bozarth, Jr.—Lumber dealer and manufacturer;
 George T. Jacobs—Farmer;
 George S. Jarvis—Watch and jewelry repairman;
 Harry E. York—Railroad employee and grocer;
 Benjamin Murphy—Operator of grocery store;

 Stephen Bentley—Poultry farmer and fancier;
 Frank Stevens—Lumber dealer;
 Thomas Barron—Retired merchant;
 George Barrows—Farmer;
 Charles W. Maurer—Penna. Railroad Station Agent;
 J. D. Carver—Commissioner of Deeds and Justice of the Peace;
 W. Arthur Brown, Stone mason;
 William Stevens—Lumber dealer;
 Edward Reitzler—Reading Railroad Foreman;
 William H. Johnson—Roadside refreshment and bicycle stand.

The first fire equipment of the company consisted of articles necessary for a bucket brigade, pails filled at the well of a threatened house, or one of a neighboring home, shovels and brooms for tamping out brush and grass fires, and burlap bags to be wetted down on a roof when sparks came too close. Ladders were no problem as most home owners considered a ladder as important to their home as the chimney or well.

Meetings were held regularly after the company was formed, for many years over the present Elwood Post Office building. Before the early twenties, equipment consisted of a hand drawn truck, holding ladders and buckets. It was housed in the yard of the present Elwood Town Hall. A huge iron ring, attached to a tree was hit by a hammer to give a fire alarm. One long time member recalls that soon after the alarm was put up, the late Frank Edwards was placed in charge of fire drills, and after working late at his tax books one night, he decided at midnight to call a drill. Many of the fire laddies failed to see the joke after dressing hurriedly and rushing to the hall and warned the drill master to pick an earlier hour.

Through the efforts of William A. Blair a good fire engine was obtained from the Amatol war time plant with the permission of Captain Harry Carr. Although it was loaned to the company when Amatol was closed and the buildings dismantled, it was never called for.

Lumber for the first fire house, which was a 30 by 40 foot building also came from Amatol. This first fire house stood just south of the present modern fire house. It was heated with a huge pot bellied stove and was the scene of many a dance and party given to raise funds for added equipment. The contract for the present fire house was drawn up, November 6, 1941. In 1955 a hall, 40-50 feet constructed of masonry was added to the fire hall and is an attractive asset to the neighborhood. It is equipped with gas heat, the floors have been recently covered with tile in a green and gray marbled pattern and drapes, in a cheerful floral motif have been hung at the windows, the gift of ladies of the fire auxiliary. There is also attached a kitchen with three gas stoves, cabinets and other up to date kitchen furnishings with a capacity of preparing food for at least two hundred persons. The hall has a seating capacity of one hundred. It is also used for a voting place on Elections Days.

Elwood's first fire chief was John Ireland, now deceased. Records do not show how long he was chief or names of other chiefs until 1932 when Tom Henshaw was elected and served for a three year term. He was again elected in 1939 and served a six year term; and again in 1949 serving until 1952. Oscar Jarvis was picked as chief in 1935 and acted until 1939. Leo Nace was named chief for one year in 1948, the late Karl Biesel for one year in 1952 and Charles Cirillo has served as chief since 1953.

Presidents since 1932 include: Nathan Morgan, 1932 to 1933:

James Adshead, 1934 to 1936; William Blair, 1937 to 1952; Nathan Morgan, 1953 to 1954; Leo Nace, 1955 to 1957 and Carmen Siciliano elected for 1958.

Presidents of the Ladies Auxiliary are: Mrs. Nathan Morgan, 1926 to 1929; Mrs. Bessie Adshead, 1930; Mrs. Louise Henshaw, 1931 to 1935; Mrs. Helen Milne, 1938 to 1940; Mrs. Louise Henshaw, 1942 to 1945; Mrs. Leo Nace, 1948 to 1949 and Mrs. Charles Cirillo, 1953 to 1958 inc. This group deserves much credit as they work shoulder to shoulder with the firemen, planning their own fund raising events, assisting with every event the firemen give.

These events have not only helped to raise funds for the fire company, they have provided a social life for the community. The frequent meetings bring neighbors together who might not otherwise meet as a social group; the plays and minstrel shows that have been staged by local talent have been fun rehearsing and given persons a chance to act; the suppers have again brought neighbors together and a welcome time to eat out; clam bakes and picnics are something to look forward to and remember; card parties mean a pleasant way to spend the evening, rummage sales and bazaars before Christmas provide easy shopping and the monthly dances are something for the young folks to enjoy.

The organization that was formed fifty years ago has truly gone a long way. It has not only fulfilled its original purpose of protecting life and property from fire, it has kept alive a good community spirit.

To the Elwood Volunteer Fire Company, and its Women's Auxiliary—Happy Birthday To You!
